A COURAGEOUS Indiana legislator has introduced a bill to hold baggage-masters responsible for the baggage they smash. DR. MILES' RESTORATIVE NERVE
 Cures nervous prostration. Not miraculously, but scientifically, by first removing the germs of disease, and then supplying healthy nerve food, increasing the appetite, helping digestion and strengthening the entire system. Desperate cases require prolonged treatment as shown by that of Mrs. M. B. Reed, of Delta, Iowa, who writes: "As the result of a lightning stroke, the physicians said I had a light stroke of paralysis, my limbs would all draw up. I would have throbbings in my chest that seemed unendurable. For three months I could not sleep and for three weeks did not close my eyes. I prayed for sleep, and felt that if relief did not come I would be dead or insane. I took Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve and the second night slept two hours and from that time on my health improved; slowly at first, but steadily and surely. I took in all 40 bottles, and I cannot express how grateful I am, for I am now perfectly well, and have taken no medicine for over four months." Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold by druggists on guarantee that first bottle benefits or money refunded.

GOSSIPY PARAGRAPHS.

Theatrical and Otherwise—Remarks in The Foyer.

John Philip Sousa's peerless band, will be the next attraction at the Paris Grand Opera House, coming on January 25th for a matinee concert. The band contains fifty musicians. Mrs. Elizabeth Northup, soprano, and Miss Martina Johnson, violinist, are with Sousa this season.

Chas. Yale's spectacle, "The Twelve Temptations" attracted an audience of good size to the Grand, Tuesday night, and several of the specialties received hearty applause. The performance contained several pretty ballets, which were well executed by nimble-limbed premiers and a score of coryphees. The costumes were beautiful and novel, and several of the comic divertissements were especially unique and amusing. Pleasing specialties were introduced by Rosaire and Elliot, gymnasts, the former's juggling act being very clever. Harry Brown and Josie Sisson were the best of the cast—which was weak in point of musical and dramatic ability.

The Phi Delta Phi fraternity cut up high jinks Saturday night in Cincinnati. They out-Seelyed the Seelye dinner dance in N. Y. by having the couchee-couchee dance! by Morish girls only in smile and ankles. The police are investigating the affair. Maysville's fast young men had a similar performance Monday night in Maysville.

The report that Ellen Beach Yaw, the famous high-ranged soprano, had burst her jug vein and bled to death at Binghamton, N. Y., while reaching a high note, is denounced as an advertising fake, as the story is untrue in every particular.

The couchee-couchee dance executed at the Seelye bachelor dinner in New York recently by "the Egypt" caused a tremendous sensation and has resulted in a police investigation and a trial. The dinner occurred at Sherry's.

Thos. Seabrooke appears at the Lexington opera house Monday night, in "The Speculator." Sol Smith Russell comes on the 21st in "Our Bachelors," "Lady Slavey" on the 23, and Sousa's Band on the 25.
